To Whom It May Concern:

This law firm has been using the services of Emplymentskiptracing.com for a number of years. Steve and his staff have always been very responsive to our requests and have provided quality information that is vital for the success of our firm. Prior to utilizing Steve's services, we struggled to gather good information from several sources in a process that was inefficient and time consuming. Now, with Emplymentskiptracing.com, we are able to quickly and efficiently proceed in the collection of judgments and provide better results for our clients.

Steve has proven to be easy to work with and a solid resource for our firm. I highly recommend Emplymentskiptracing.com to any practice needing employment information and would be happy to answer any questions regarding our experience with their services.
